

Linda Arndt – “The Great Dane Lady”
Canine Nutritional Consultant
Precise Pet Products

Linda Arndt, better known as “The Great Dane Lady,” serves as a Canine Nutritional Consultant for Precise Pet Products. Her list of credentials includes 38 years of experienced breeding as well as being a highly renowned canine nutritional consultant.

Arndt has devoted years to researching and writing about several health issues of pets such as nutritionally caused bone diseases, the effects of high calorie diets on the growth of large and giant breeds, the effect of growth of systemic yeast to general nutrition on wellness and longevity for pets. Arndt has authored several articles that have been featured in Dane World Magazine, Whole Dog Journal, Pet Health News, Pet Product News International, Animal Wellness as well as many other pet industry magazines.

In addition to her research and writing, Arndt conducts nutritional feed trials to determine the best pet foods for specific needs. She works closely with the research and development team at Precise Pet Products when developing new pet food formulas. Currently, Linda promotes and feeds her own dogs the Precise Pet Products as her main go-to food for natural and dietary values to canines and felines.

In June 2006, Arndt retired after 34 years at Ball State University to continue her artwork and pet nutritional consulting business. She founded Blackwatch Nutritional Consulting LLC to further her efforts in canine nutritional research. Blackwatch Nutritional Consulting LLC works with holistic dog food, supplement companies, veterinarians and pet owners to design food programs that promote wellness for companion animals.

Arndt received a Bachelor of Fine Arts from San Francisco Art Institute and Master of Fine Arts from Cranbrook Academy of Art, Bloomfield Michigan and has an international exhibition record in her area of expertise of Ceramic Arts.
