

STONERIDGE COLLIES PREFER PRECISE

For the past 18 years, Theresa Uzelac of Stoneridge Collies has fed her dogs Precise almost exclusively. An exhibitor for more than 20 years and a breeder for more than 12, Uzelac is deeply invested in the health and nutrition of her animals. She has gone to great lengths to learn about dog food and nutrition, with the goal of producing Collies with exceptional health, temperament and conformation.

Uzelac began her career with longhaired Rough Coated Collies and eventually added shorthaired Smooth Coated Collies to her pack. Currently, she owns and shows Collies ranging in ages from six months to six years, and has two retired champions, over the ages of 12. She averages one litter every one to two years. Her very first show Collie was raised and conditioned exclusively on Precise. He became a champion at the young age of 15 months and later, at three years old, ranked eighth in the national rankings for his breed.

When Precise became temporarily unavailable in her area, Uzelac tried other brands and was disappointed in the results. She found that her Collies were experiencing digestive upsets and their coats became lackluster. When Precise became available again, Uzelac quickly switched back, and in a short time, she saw dramatic changes in her Collies. Their coats became healthier, shinier and demonstrated improved color, and their digestive upsets disappeared.

“Precise’s formulas have quality natural ingredients and no chemical preservatives,” said Uzelac. “That’s why it’s Precise or nothing for my beloved Collies!”

Now, Uzelac’s Collies enjoy Precise formulas including Precise Holistic Complete - Senior, Precise Holistic Complete Large & Giant Breed - Adult and Precise Holistic Complete Large & Giant Breed - Puppy. Uzelac claims her Collies’ love for Precise is due to its palatability and, although she’s not sure they realize it, how nutritious it is for them.

Uzelac states, “My Collies are healthy, happy, and live to ripe old ages eating only Precise products. For that, I am eternally grateful to everyone at Precise Pet Products!”
